EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

INTRODUCTION

At the 59th Meeting of Commissioners held on 23 November 2015, the Commissioners of the Eastern Caribbean Securities Regulatory Commission (ECSRC) unanimously agreed to develop new and modern collective investment scheme legislation to govern investment fund business in the Eastern Caribbean Securities Market (ECSM). The Investment Funds Act 2021 (The Act) is new draft legislation that will overhaul the regulatory regime for collective investment schemes and specifically reform the current Part IX of the Securities Act and the Collective Investment Scheme Regulations 2001/2002. It will also improve and modernise the law to ensure that it is consistent with international standards and best practices.

The new Act includes provisions to protect investors and the public and repeals and replaces Part IX of the current Securities Act 2001 on Collective Investment Schemes, the Collective Investment Scheme Regulations, 2001/2002 and the respective Mutual Funds Acts in the member territories of the Eastern Caribbean Currency Union (ECCU/Currency Union).

It is anticipated that the new Act will enhance the competitiveness of the ECCU jurisdiction in the international investment funds market by providing the enabling legislation that would attract foreign investment funds to the region. This will redound to the benefit of the economies in the member territories and enhance investment options for investors in the ECCU.

SUMMARY OF PARTS

The provisions in the Act are set out in five (5) Parts and these are summarised below:

PRELIMINARY

The Preliminary provisions in the Act include the short title and commencement in section 1 and the interpretation in section 2.

PART I – INVESTMENT FUNDS

Part I of the Act contains five divisions.

Division I of the Act provides general prohibitions on the operation of unlicensed and unregistered funds in the ECCU. Subsection 3 of section 3 outlines the circumstances where an investment fund will be deemed to be carrying on business “in” the Currency Union and “from within” the Currency Union. Section 4 provides for the prohibition against promotion of an investment fund. Under section 5 an investment fund incorporated, formed or organised in a foreign jurisdiction does not solicit an individual within the Currency Union to subscribe for, or purchase, any of its fund interests in circumstances where the subscription or purchase is a result of an approach made by the individual to the fund without any solicitation made by or on behalf of the fund.

Under section 6 a professional fund is permitted to operate for a continuous period not exceeding thirty days while it seeks to be registered by the Commission, if the fund satisfies the criteria specified in section 11 (2) (a), (c) and (d), and complies with, and is managed and administered in accordance with the requirements of the Act and the Investment Fund Regulations relating to professional funds. An investment fund that commences business in reliance on subsection (1) shall submit an application to the Commission for registration as a professional fund within twenty-one days after the commencement of its business in the ECCU.

Division II of the Act deals with the licensing requirements for a public investment fund.

Section 7 provides that a public fund shall not, whether in or outside the Currency Union, make an invitation to the public to participate or invest in a public investment fund, unless the invitation is contained in a registered prospectus and such prospectus complies with the Investment Funds regulations. Section 8 sets out circumstances under which it will not be deemed to have constituted an invitation to the public to participate or invest in a public investment fund. Section 10 provides for the form and content of an investment fund prospectus for a public investment fund.

Division III provides for a registration process for private and professional investment funds.

A private investment fund is defined as “a fund that-

- (a) is lawfully incorporated, constituted, formed or organised under the laws of a member country of the Currency Union or under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction; and
- (b) specifies in its constitutional documents that-
 - (i) the fund is not authorised to have more than fifty investors; or
 - (ii) an invitation to subscribe for, or purchase, fund interests issued by the fund shall be made on a private basis only;

A professional fund means an investment fund that is only offered to professional investors at the time of issue of the equity interest

A professional investor means any person who comes within any of the following categories –

- (a) any bank or trust company licensed under the Banking Act and Trust Act of a member country or licensed under the laws of another jurisdiction; whether acting in its individual or fiduciary capacity;
- (b) any registered firm under the Securities Act 20-- or under the laws or another jurisdiction;
- (c) any insurance company licensed under the Insurance Act, of a member country or licensed under the laws of another jurisdiction;
- (d) any investment fund licensed or registered under this Act or regulated under the laws of another jurisdiction;
- (e) an individual whose individual net worth at the time of the purchase exceeds EC$500,000 and/or individual annual income has been in excess of EC$200,000 in each of the two most recent years, and has reasonable expectation of reaching the same income level in the current year;
- (f) an individual whose joint net worth with that individual's spouse, at the time of the purchase exceeds EC$1,000,000 or whose joint income with that individual's spouse has been in excess of $600,000 in each of the two most recent years, and has a reasonable expectation of reaching the same income level in the current year;
- (g) any trust with total assets in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000);
- (h) any entity where all the equity owners satisfy one of the requirements in paragraphs (a) to (g); or
- (i) any entity with net assets in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000);

. Under section 11(5), where the Commission grants an application for registration of a public or professional fund, it shall register the funds in the respective Private Funds Register or Professional Funds Register and issue a certificate of registration in the approved form.

Section 12 provides that a private or professional fund should act in accordance with its constitutional documents. This section also requires that prior to investing in a private or professional fund, an investor must provide written confirmation that he/she is a professional investor for the purposes of the Bill and that he/she has understood and accepted the prescribed investment warning.

Division IV provides for the registration of a foreign fund. Section 13(2) provides that the Commission may approve an application for registration by a foreign investment fund if the Commission is satisfied that:

- (a) the fund complies with the requirements of this Act in respect of the application and will, upon being registered, be in compliance with the requirements of this Act with respect to registered foreign funds;

- (b) the fund is subject to an authorisation and supervisory regime in the jurisdiction in which it is constituted that, in the opinion of the Commission, provides to investors in the Currency Union protection at least equivalent to the protection provided under this Act for investors of public funds;
- (c) the fund is being operated and managed in compliance with the authorisation and supervisory regime to which it is subject.

In section 13 the Investment Funds Regulations will make provisions for matters related to the registration of foreign funds, including, the publication of fund particulars, notifications to be provided to the Commission and the maintenance of deposits and property by the fund, in the Currency Union.

Division V of the Act provides general provisions applicable to licensed and registered funds. Section 15 provides that the Commission shall not license or register a fund until the applicant has satisfied the Commission that the service-providers (promoters, operators, investment fund advisors, investment fund managers, investment funds administrators, auditors, custodians) are fit and proper and the business of the investment fund and any offering of equity interests in it will be carried out in a proper manner. Section 16 sets out the circumstances under which the Commission may refuse to license or register an investment fund. Under section 16, no person other than a regulated investment fund shall carry on or attempt to carry on business as an investment fund with the words “fund” or “investment funds” in its name.

Sections 18 and 19 provide the requirements where an investment fund transfers its operations into or intends to operate from within the Currency Union.

The procedures for the voluntary surrender of a license or registration granted to an investment fund, are provided for under section 20 of the Act.

Section 21 sets out the circumstances in which an investment fund may voluntarily suspend and re-launch its operations as an investment fund.

Section 22 provides that an applicant for a licence should not provide information that he or she reasonably knows to be false or misleading, to the Commission. There is also a requirement that the Commission should be notified by a regulated investment fund if it receives false or misleading information from a service provider.

PART II - LICENSING OF INVESTMENT FUND SERVICE-PROVIDERS

Part II of the Act is arranged in four Divisions.

Division I sets out the prohibition on the conduct of business as a service-provider unless it is licensed or registered by the Commission (section 23(1)). Section 23(2) sets out the requirements for grant of application for a service provider licence. “On application, the Commission may grant a licence or registration as a service-provider if the Commission is satisfied that all the prescribed requirements have been fulfilled and to do so would be in the public interest”

Part II outlines provisions for the different service providers.

Division II section 24 provides that an operator of an investment fund shall ensure that the investment fund does not carry on or attempt to carry on business as an investment fund contrary to the provisions of this Act.

Division III sections 25 to 31 deals with the licensing requirements for an Investment Fund Manager. By virtue of section 25, an investment fund shall appoint an investment fund manager upon commencement of operations. Section 25 also provides for exemptions from that requirement.

Section 27 sets out the requirements for grant of the investment fund manager licence or registration.

Under section 27, the Commission will not approve a licence or register an investment fund manager unless-

- (a) it is satisfied that the applicant will be able to meet the conditions of this Part;
- (b) the applicant has the prescribed capital, own funds and professional indemnity insurance in accordance with section 29;
- (c) the persons who effectively conduct the business of the applicant are of good repute and are experienced in relation to the investment strategies pursued by the investment funds to be managed by the applicant, and the conduct of the business of the applicant is decided by at least two persons meeting such conditions;

The general duties of an investment fund manager are listed in section 28 of the Act. The requirements for minimum paid-up capital and professional indemnity insurance are provided in section 29 of the Act.

Division IV (section 32 to 39) deals with the licensing requirements for an Investment Fund

Administrator. By virtue of section 32, an investment fund is to appoint an investment fund administrator prior to commencement of operations. The name of the investment fund administrator is restricted under section 33, which provides that no person shall carry on or attempt to carry the business of investment fund administrator with the word fund administrator in its title, unless exempted or otherwise authorized to do so by the Commission.

Section 34 prohibits a person from acting as an investment fund administrator unless licensed or registered as an investment fund administrator by the Commission.

In section 35, the Commission may grant an investment fund administrator's licence if it is satisfied that the applicant-

- (a) is a company incorporated or registered under the Companies Act or International Business Companies Act of a member country;
- (b) has sufficient expertise to administer investment funds;
- (c) is of sound reputation;
- (d) will administer investment funds in a proper manner;
- (e) has directors, officers, and senior management and significant security holders who meets the fit and proper requirements as prescribed by the Commission;
- (f) has a principal office in a member country;
- (g) complies with the prescribed and requirements.

The obligations of an investment fund administrator are outlined under section 36 of the Act.

Section 37 provides for the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer and the Compliance Officer of an investment fund administrator.

Section 38 of the Act gives the Commission the discretion to require an investment fund administrator to increase its paid-up capital and maintain professional indemnity insurance.

Section 39 requires an investment fund administrator to appoint a compliance officer to ensure that it complies with all applicable laws. The compliance officer must be approved by the Commission.

Division IV (Sections 40 to 4) deals with matters related to the custodian of an investment fund. Under section 40, an investment fund shall appoint one or more persons as custodians of the assets of the investment fund. A custodian must first be licensed or registered under the laws of a member country or foreign jurisdiction before such appointment.

Sections 42 requires that a custodian must be independent of the investment fund administrator, the investment fund manager and the operator of the fund, unless exempted. The obligation of segregation of the investment fund's assets from the custodian's assets is set out in section 43 of the Act.

PART III - GENERAL REGULATORY MATTERS

Part III of the Act addresses a number of general matters with respect to an investment fund. Section 45 provides the procedure for the submission of applications for the licensing or registration of an investment fund, where the applicant has satisfied the necessary requirements. The section also provides that the licence or registration will remain effective unless revoked, expires, the condition for continuing the licence, or registration have not been satisfied or the Commission accepts a surrender of the licence.

Section 46 provides that the Commission may impose, vary or revoke a condition of a licence or registration and section 47 provides for the renewal process of a licence or registration.

Under section 48, the Commission shall maintain a service-provider register to show details of the service-providers that are licensed, registered or exempted under the Act.

Section 49 provides that it is an offence for anyone to carry on business under Parts I or II without holding the required licence or registration from the Commission.

PART IV - ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL MATTERS

Section 50 provides that an investment fund service-provider shall undertake due-diligence on an investment fund before providing services to that fund.

Section 51 provides that an investment fund service-provider shall not appoint or charge a third party provider to assist with the provision of services for which a service-provider licence has been granted, unless prior written approval is obtained from the Commission, the third party complies with any conditions given upon approval, and any applicable fee has been paid.

Under section 52, where a service provider knows or has reason to believe that an investment fund for which it provides services, or an operator, any service provider, auditor or promoter of such investment fund is likely to become unable to meet its obligations as they fall due, is carrying on business otherwise than in accordance with this Act or any other law or is carrying on business in a manner that is or is likely to be prejudicial to investors or creditors of the investment fund, the service-provider shall immediately give the Commission written notice of its knowledge or belief giving its reason for that knowledge or belief.

This Part also provides for various administration, accounting, reporting and auditing of regulated persons..

Every investment fund service-provider is required to have its financial statements audited annually by an auditor under section 53 of the Act.

Under section 54, an approved auditor is obliged to report to the Commission if during the performance of the audit, he becomes aware of any matter which in his opinion adversely affects the financial position of the entity being audited to a certain extent or he discovers evidence of a contravention of such provisions as may be prescribed.

Section 55 authorises the Commission to require the audit of the accounts of a regulated person at any time.

Section 56 of the Act provides for financial reporting by a regulated person. Section 57 requires a regulated person to comply with any direction given to it by the Commission. The approval of the Commission is required for any change in appointments or information under section 58 of the Act.

Section 59 provides that initial requirements for licensing or registration as well as any other requirements imposed by the Act or the Commission from time to time, must continue to be met by a licensee or registrant during the validity period of a licence or registration.

Section 60 provides that the Commission is to administer the ECCU Investment Funds Act.

PART V - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 61 provides for general offences. Under section 61, a person who contravenes any provision of the Act or the regulations made under the Act, commits an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of up to one million dollars or to imprisonment for up to 10 years or both.

Sections 62 and 63 of the Act makes provisions for regulations by the Minister of Finance and the rule-making authority of the Commission. Section 64 of the Act outlines the procedures for winding up and termination.

Under section 66, the ECCU Investment Funds Act will repeal the Mutual Funds Act in the respective countries while section 67 provide transitional provisions.
